

'NAME A DOLPHIN' COMPETITION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. To enter this promotion, eligible entrants must, during the promotional period on River Guardians Name A Dolphin Competition landing page (URL: www.riverguardians.com/projects/dolphin-watch/name-a-dolphin-competition) on the River Guardians website, enter a dolphin calf name and within 25 words or less state why this name has been selected, input first and last name, email, contact number, date of birth, postcode and submit entry.
2. Entrants must accept these terms and conditions in order to be eligible to enter. The promoter reserves the right to refuse prize redemption to any entrant that does not comply with these terms and conditions.
3. Entry is only open to WA residents. Employees (and their immediate families) of the Department of Parks and Wildlife are ineligible to enter.
4. The Promotion Period commences 8:00am (WST) on 09/05/16 and closes at 15:00pm (WST) on 20/05/16 ("Promotional Period").
5. Dolphin Calf Name entries open at 8:00am (WST) on 09/05/16 and closes at 15:00pm (WST) on 20/05/16 ("Promotional Period"). A maximum of one (1) name entry only per person is permitted.
6. Duplicate Dolphin Calf Name entries selected will be based on the person who first entered the name during the promotional period. This selection will take place at Department of Parks and Wildlife, 17 Dick Perry Avenue, Kensington, WA 6151 on 20/05/16 by 16:00pm.
7. Dolphin Watch project scientists from Murdoch University and Curtin University will select the winning dolphin calf name.
8. One lucky winner is entitled to a prize. A framed picture of the dolphin calf and a Department of Parks and Wildlife Annual All Parks Pass valued at $88 to explore Western Australia's stunning, world class parks. This pass provides unlimited entry into any WA park for one year.
9. The winning calf name will be published on the River Guardians Name a Dolphin Calf Landing page (URL: www.riverguardians.com/projects/dolphin-watch/name-a-dolphin-competition) on the River Guardians website, and River Guardians social media accounts on Monday 30 May 2016 and in any media that publishes the competition.
10. The winner agrees to be interviewed about their winning name for any publication – including all Department of Parks and Wildlife websites, social media and newsletters or other media organisations who take interest in the story.
11. The Major Prize winner will be contacted by Monday 30 May 2016 on the email address provided during the entry process. The promoter takes no responsibility for incorrect contact details being provided. If the Department of Parks and Wildlife does not receive a response to claim the prize within two (2) weeks following the winner notification email being sent, the winner agrees to forfeit their prize.
12. Prize details:
 - A framed picture of the newly named dolphin calf.
 - Department of Parks and Wildlife WA Annual All Park's Pass - Explore Western Australia's stunning, world class parks with an Annual All Parks Pass. This pass provides unlimited entry into any WA park for one year. The pass is valid for one vehicle*, with up to twelve legally seated people. *Additional Vehicles: Customers are entitled to nominate 2 cars per Annual Local, All Parks, Concession and Goldstar purchase. The vehicle must be owned by the pass holder or their spouse and registered at the same address.

PLEASE NOTE: Passes are not printable. Please allow time for passes to be sent via post. The pass is not redeemable for cash.

13. The Promoter is the River Guardians program of the Department of Parks and Wildlife, 17 Dick Perry Avenue, Kensington, WA 6165, Ph: 92780971.